

Information for Clients

Your trainee therapist*: Elizabeth McBarnet

Address: 19 Lismenary Road, Ballynure BT39 9UE

Telephone: 028 9332 4144 e-mail: Therapy@lismenary.co.uk

*Trainee therapists are working towards full qualification and registration with the Human Givens Institute. A trainee therapist has successfully completed the Human Givens College Diploma course, demonstrating good theoretical understanding of the human givens approach. In addition, they are practising under supervision in accordance with the Institute's supervision policy and are subject to the HGI's ethics code and complaints procedure.

Terms of business

Cost of therapy: £0 per 90 minute session.

Cancellation policy: 24 hours notice of cancellation is normally required.

Your personal information will be kept in accordance with the Data Protection legislation on the basis that I have given my consent to information about me being held by the therapist, which means that they will:

- use your contact details only to get in touch with you about matters relating to your therapy, such as appointments and to provide helpful information, where appropriate, unless you have given your explicit consent for the therapist to contact you for other purposes.
- retain notes of your treatment for a period of 7 years, in accordance with professional requirements and will take steps to ensure the security of the record.
- not share your personal information with other individuals or organisations, except where they have reason to believe you or others to be at risk, or where there is a legal duty to disclose it, or as otherwise specified, if applicable. (If the last clause is applicable, your therapist will explain it to you.)
- provide you with free access to the information they hold about you, should you wish.

Note: If you have concerns about the accuracy or management of your personal information, please tell your therapist. If you are not satisfied with their response, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office (<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>, Telephone 0303 123 1113) and/or the HGI (see below).

Outcome measures

Your therapist uses various measures in order to gauge your response to treatment. If you are happy to do so, you will be asked to fill out some brief questionnaires before and after therapy sessions. These questionnaires help the therapist understand your needs, your past and present strengths and how best to help.

Your personal details and the information from the questionnaires will be treated as strictly confidential and in accordance with the terms of the Data Protection Act. With your permission, the anonymised data from the questionnaires will be transferred to a secure database to be used for service evaluation and research.

Signing the 'Confidentiality Statement' will be taken to represent your agreement for your anonymised data to be used for service evaluation and research. You can withdraw your consent to this at any time by contacting your therapist.

Comments

If you have any feedback about your experience of receiving human givens therapy, or suggestions for improvements, please visit the HGI's online feedback page. Alternatively, you can write to the HGI (see below for address). Feedback helps us to improve our training of therapists, their continuing professional development and the governance of the Human Givens Institute.

Concerns

If you have any concerns about your experience of receiving human givens therapy please contact the Human Givens Institute:

Address:

The HGI Membership Secretary, Human Givens Institute, Chalvington, East Sussex, BN27 3TD, UK

Telephone: 01323 811662

E-mail: complaints@humangivens.com;

Website: <https://www.hgi.org.uk>

HGI Complaints Procedure: <https://www.hgi.org.uk/therapist-register/raising-concerns>

The Human Givens Institute's Code of Ethics and Conduct can be viewed at:

<https://www.hgi.org.uk/about-hgi/ethics-and-conduct>

If you would like a paper copy of the Policy, please contact the Human Givens Institute.